Dear Sirs,

Please protect the right of the dog owner, to own and care for their chosen family pets kept to enhance family life, Hobbies and sport. Dogs are an asset to a community and have served mankind well through the ages.

Early sterilisation interferes with the normal development of any animal. Many health issues can be caused by

Early sterilisation, and de-sexing has been found to be the cause of many behaviour problems. Additionally, how would de-sexing healthy, well kept dogs, owned by members of the pure bred dog societies, the many clubs

Throughout the country, who adhere to strict breeding practices, stop the activities of the puppy farmers, who are

Hard to track down, are not registered the authorities and are not abiding by any regulations and breed their bitches

Every time they come into season, breeding purely for the pet market?

Please consider the views of dog and cat breeders whose interest is the improvement, the betterment of the pure bred

Animal their physical, and mental welfare, and not the pet market!

Thanking you for your kind consideration,

Honey Gross-Richardson
