

Children Participating at Promotions

Scope:

Children under the prescribed age, may not have the understanding and skills to limit/control movement when striking for the purposes of an exhibition match, making it difficult for Officials to control the level of contact inside the contest area.

As such, the Combat Sports Commission will not approve any children who have been placed on a permit for the purposes of an exhibition match.

Children under the age of 18 years of age will not be permitted to register as an Industry Participant other than in the capacity of a Second when 16 years old and above. It has been deemed that an adult shall be responsible for the health and safety of a Contestant and responsible for the adjudicating of a contest.
